Dear Participant,

We are looking forward to seeing you next month at the New York & New Jersey Pain Medicine Symposium on November 4-7, 2021 in Jersey City, New Jersey. The health and safety of our attendees is of the highest concern, and we recognize that these are trying and stressful times for our attendees. As the Coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to spread, we want to advise you that we are taking every measure and precaution, as recommended by the CDC guidelines regarding group gatherings, to ensure the safety of our participants.

To keep our symposium as virus-safe as possible, we kindly ask you to follow our COVID-19 protocols:

- All attendees must assert that at the time that they first attend the symposium and for the 14 days prior:
 - They are not experiencing COVID-19 symptoms (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html>).
 - Have not traveled from an area under a travel health advisory.
 - Have not provided care for or had close contact with any person with or reasonably suspected of having COVID-19, or with any person who traveled outside of your home country or to an area under a travel health advisory.
 - Have not been advised by any health authority, government agency or regulation to self-isolate due to possible exposure to COVID-19.
- Please show either your fully vaccinated card, a negative PCR test each day you attend the symposium, or written proof from your physician that you have been infected with COVID-19 within the previous 90 days;
- It is highly recommended that you practice wearing your masks around large groups of people;
- Please practice social distancing to the best of your ability; and
- Please frequently use hand sanitizer, as will be provided at various stations.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the Meeting Coordinator, Ms. Sandra Vamos vamos@congressline.hu

Thank you for your cooperation!
